

Jim Emmi - Celebration of His Life

Jim Emmi, brilliant engineer, successful developer, Newport Beach pioneer, philanthropist to many organizations, sailor extraordinaire and loving husband to Catherine, was honored at a Celebration of Life June 25, at his beloved Bahia Corinthian Yacht Club. Jim passed away May 14, just one month short of his 100th birthday. A man who lived life to the fullest, Jim was adored by his wife, Catherine, and son, Cameron Pearce. They are proud of his accomplishments and wanted to honor him, as he has done so much for the community.

A good place to start to show Jim's joy of life, would be the Emmi's Nautor 43 Swan sloop, Pele, named after the volcano goddess. This boat represents the intense energy that Jim and Catherine spent supporting important events. Purchased in 1978, Jim sailed her from Finland, arriving in Newport Beach after an 11-month voyage, with a revolving crew of family and friends. A legendary ocean sailor, he flew the BCYC burgee throughout the long journey. He was commodore of BCYC, a member for over 44 years, and helped the club financially in its early days. A couple of years ago, a committee boat was donated and appropriately named Emmi. Over the years, Jim participated in over 100 races on the Swan and a previous Islander 37, winning many trophies. He participated in 23 Newport to Ensenada races and was very proud of racing in the inaugural BCYC Around the Islands Race in 2016, an overnight 125-mile competition involving rounding Catalina, Sutil and Santa Barbara Islands, beginning and ending in Newport Beach.

Jim, along with Catherine, was an avid golfer, belonging to Newport Beach Golf Course. Living in Irvine Terrace for many years made it convenient to get to their yacht club, golf club, and the Balboa Bay Club. Jim was one of the original residents in this area, specifically planning to be close to the places he enjoyed. He was the president of Kimberly Development Company and a manager of apartment properties. He was a member of the Chapman University Board of Trustees and served on the Pacific Symphony Board of Trustees since 1990. His friends will miss having a conversation with Jimmy, as he had his mischievous side, a laugh you continually wanted to hear and a heart of gold. This, the original Renaissance man, who loved so much, was grateful for it all, and showed his appreciation.

When Jim met Catherine at an SOS (Share Our Selves, an Orange County nonprofit) event in China Cove, at the home of Kathy and Jerry Thompson, he knew he had met his match. Catherine, a kindergarten teacher for over 25 years, had more liveliness than the 30-plus children in each of her classes, as Jim would attest.

The Emmis have been true music lovers, understanding its importance to our community, and generously supported the Pacific Symphony since 1987. Wishing to advance health care in Orange County and beyond, the Emmi Family donated to the Hoag Hospital Foundation to support the Hoag Neurosciences Institute. "Every gift, large or small, stands out and makes a difference," stated Jim, who hoped to inspire others to give.

Jim fully represented the pay it forward philosophy, so vital in today's world. In 2013, Jim and Catherine were Chapman University's Citizen of the Year. They were honored for supporting Serving People in Need (SPL) and were hailed as "OC Heroes of Philanthropy," joining other big-hearted Orange County citizens. Let's give Jim a perpetual toast for making the world a better place.

Catherine Emmi and son, Cameron Pearce, held a centennial celebration of the life for Staff Commodore Jim Emmi June 25, at BCYC. All BCYC members were invited to a cocktail party in the club house, where Catherine Emmi made a toast to her late husband. Following the cocktail party, Catherine and Cameron welcomed 250 invited guests to an evening of the music of Portofino, performed by the Hutchins Consort, members of the Pacific Symphony, soloist Bruce Cook and pianist/entertainer Jimmy Vann. Guests dined on a delicious four-course dinner of filet mignon and sea bass.

A Gift That We Give

I recently sat down with members of the Junior Events Committee to interview our junior sailors who had applied to be chosen as officers of the Junior Board of Directors. This was the second year that I was asked to meet with these candidates, many who are in high school, and have been in the BCYC Sailing Program for some time.

These young people are very impressive. They are not only excellent sailors, but are extremely poised, mature and thoughtful. Every question that we posed was answered in a way that showed a great deal of thought and creativity. Clearly, they had contemplated what they could do to make the experience of junior sailing at BCYC even better. It made me very proud and reassured to see that sailing at BCYC contributes so much to these young people developing into far more than successful sailors.

They are dedicated students with excellent grades at their respective schools, and are growing into very poised future leaders in our society.

Many years ago, when my son, Scott, had just starting sailing in the Junior Program, he was participating in one of his first races. Scott got so excited when he found himself in the lead at the first mark that he forgot to make a smooth mark rounding and capsized. He swam, towing his boat to the beach on Balboa Island, bailed out the water, adjusted the rigging without any help, and sailed the rest of the race. Of course, he finished last. For the remainder of that year, if anyone asked him what was the best part of his summer, he would relate the story of his capsized, recovery and pride at finishing the race without help. That pride and confidence was a gift from our Junior Program.

The next time you are slightly annoyed because a junior sailor is temporarily in your way, be reassured that this young person is developing in a manner that will some day make us very proud to have been a part of his or her development. We are giving each of them a very important gift.

Junior Awards Banquet

The Aug. 7 BCYC Junior Awards Banquet celebrated the accomplishments of the junior sailors this year. Each sailor was presented with a participation award, and a select few in each class were given special awards, such as most outstanding and most improved. Perpetual trophies were also presented to the most outstanding and most improved sailors out of the entire program, along with most enthusiastic, best sportsmanship and more. The 2016 Camp Corinthian summer sailing program was a huge success, with more than 80 kids participating, including 25 CFJ sailors.

*New Member
 Cocktail Party*

ALL BCYC members are cordially invited to the New Member Cocktail Party Oct. 7, from 6:30-8:30 p.m. The event will fete the new members who have joined the club from October 2015, through September 2016. This is a perfect opportunity for seasoned members to provide our newest members with some history and great stories about BCYC.

We are excited to welcome the folks who joined the BCYC family in the past few months. They were:

- Michael and Lisa Bancroft, Regular Flag
- Stephen Brand, Regular Flag
- Shane and Rebecca Corbin, Regular Flag
- Matthew and Elizabeth Hawkins, JFlag
- David and Maryann Johndrow, Regular Flag
- Darlana Monet, Regular Flag
- Thomas and Mary O'Rourke, Regular Flag
- David Reed, Regular Flag

All categories of membership are growing, a very positive sign. The JFlag group has held three events, getting to know each other and talking about how they can make this class of members stronger.

We want all members to be involved. There are many great opportunities to become an important part of BCYC – please contact us and we can help you know where your talents and enthusiasm can best be utilized. Make plans to attend the Oct. 7 cocktail party!

Improvements

It's been a quiet summer for ongoing projects at the club. We are currently in the process of getting bids for improvements to be done on the main floor of the clubhouse. As you know, this is where most of the wear and tear occurs and we are focusing on areas needing the most attention. These improvements will include refinished woodwork, carpeting and new or refinished chairs and table tops in the Columbia Room. Our goal is to have as much work as possible done during the Christmas holiday when the club is closed.

We have new sink top accessories in the men's and women's restrooms on the main floor, as well as the lower level. These items are a gift to the club from Las Commodoras. Thank you, Nancy Bryant, for pulling this together.

— A Different Kind of Cruise —

This July, several members and friends of BCYC took off to cruise the San Juan Mountain Range of Colorado by jeep. Under the burgee of the Bahia Corinthian Jeep Club (BCJC), Staff Commodore Mary and Bob Bacon, Staff Commodore Steve and Diane Askew, Director Bill and Kristy Parr, Dwight and Linda Yeoman, and Robin and Cathy Miller (Mary's sister) explored high mountain passes, old mining camps and hillsides of wildflowers. They traveled the trails between the rustic towns of Creed, Lake City, Silverton and Ouray. They even snuck in brunch at the home of Staff Commodore Terry and Norma Mulligan in Durango. BCJC trips are always in the works. For more information, please contact Director Parr or Staff Commodore Bacon.

DID YOU KNOW ? Important Stuff

Did you know that your guests will not be served in the Columbia Room or Dining Room until you arrive, unless you have arranged for their guest pass in advance?

Did you know that the code to the marina gates has been changed and can be obtained from the club office?

Did you know that the club has a Harbor 20 for members to check out once they have been certified? Contact the club office for certification details.

Calling All Boaters

As I have stated in the past, one of the duties of the vice commodore is to oversee, assist and implement the club's on-the-water activities. One of the primary goals at BCYC is promoting yachting, be it our Junior Program, racing programs or cruising. Each of these endeavors requires the efforts of teams of member volunteers and staff, who graciously give their time to ensure that whatever our yachting interest, it will be fulfilled beyond our expectations. A great example of this teamwork is Taco Tuesday, where we regularly host racing, a great buffet for more than 100 people and more than 30 boats each Tuesday during the summer.

Our Clambake cruise to the Del Rey Yacht Club Catalina Island station, under the guidance of Rhonda Tolar, and assisted by Cruise Chairs Secretary Steve and Lauri Moffett, hosted some 75 members and their children aboard 20 boats. We were treated to an outstanding event filled with great food and events for everyone. This cruise was preceded by our Dana Point raft-up that culminated in a dinner at which Kari and Staff Commodore Paul Konapelsky graciously entertained 81 members and guests for dinner at their home. Many members drove down for the dinner, and we had 11 boats in Dana Point Harbor.

Clambake used to be a sell-out, with over 150 members attending, and our other cruises generally would have at least 20 boats participating. Our marina is full, so there is no reason we should not get out and support these hard-working volunteers and staff, who are constantly arranging and organizing opportunities for all of us to use our boats and enjoy the local waters. Please let me, or any of the Race or Cruise Committee members know, if you have any suggestions that may have been overlooked that would improve participation. Also, this is the time of year we look for members to lead or participate in our various committees for the coming year – if you or someone you think might be interested, please let us know.

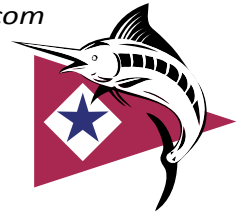

Let's get out on the water and have some fun. That's why many of us joined BCYC.

Fishing Fever!

WOW, what a catch! Our very own junior sailing director, Cameron MacLaren, recently caught a magnificent 128.5-pound bluefin tuna. I asked Cameron to give us the tale of his catch.

"It was an epic day of offshore tuna fishing near Oceanside on June 20. Captain Nate Dunham struck first and hooked one on a popper, landing a 70-pound bluefin within 10 minutes. Shortly after, I got in a nice long cast over the top of an anchovy cloud and got a hit halfway through the wind. We both saw the fish roll on my popper and knew it was a bigger model. From the beginning, it pulled like a freight train and never really let up, so I started tightening drag several clicks every few minutes. I got him up to 50 feet below the boat after 30 minutes, but could not seem to gain any headway from there. He continued dogging me for the next hour.

"Time rolled on and I kept cranking drag until I literally couldn't get another click, and even with it buttoned, I was still losing as much as I was gaining. With my limbs shaking, I doubted I would physically be able to win the fight. Thanks to some motivational words from Nate, I dug as deep as I could to keep his head turned and got him to the surface. When I finally got the fish next to the boat, Nate went in with the gaff, but the tip deflected off its incredibly thick skin. He quickly followed up with a solid gaff, after which I exchanged my rod for another gaff and set mine. It took every bit of our combined strength to get that fish over the gunwale. This picture is the ending of my great day, weighing my fish at the Balboa Angling Club."

"Kiss Your Catch" update – Vice Commodore Chuck Wert kissed his first catch during our club 24+ hour fishing challenge during the Long Beach Yacht Club cruise!

*Cruises for All
 BCYC Members –
 So Much Fun!*

The Junior Staff Commodore's cruise to San Diego, where we visited San Diego and Coronado Yacht Clubs, was a real treat. Thanks to Junior Staff Commodore Craig and Joan Delaney for planning such a great trip with perfect weather. The Dana Point raft-up and beach party at the home of Staff Commodore Paul and Kari Konapelsky was a blast! We anchored seven boats near the Marine Institute and four more were in guest slips. With the water at 76 degrees, everyone jumped off their boats and enjoyed a group swim! Thank you, Kari and Paul, for opening your home and putting on a fabulous party, and special thanks to all who helped with this cruise. Visit the club website to see the event pictures.

Our August Clambake was back at the Del Rey Yacht Club facility in Cat Harbor. Our "Under the Sea" festivities included barbecues, a luau, dinghy mystery game, Bunco, and build-and-race-your-own boat. Thank you to Rhonda Tolar, fabulous cruise captain, and all who helped over the weekend. We greatly appreciated all that was done by General Manager Scott Jones, Chef George Rapicault and the club staff – the food and libations were great!

Next up – Cambria Land Cruise, Sept. 30-Oct. 2. This is a land cruise where we will drive up the coast to Cambria for the Scarecrow Festival! Plan to leave Newport Beach and stop for lunch in Pismo Beach at the Ventana Grill on the 30th. Saturday, our bus will take us to three wineries and lunch. Saturday night will be a group dinner in town. NO BOAT NEEDED, so please consider joining us.

The cruise to Avalon, Oct. 21-23, will be our last cruise for 2016. Sign up begins Sept. 24 for this popular cruise. If you don't have a boat, consider getting a room on the island. More details will follow, but we will have our famous Mini Golf tournament for the coveted Konapelsky Trophy.

Sept. 8 at 7 p.m., there will be an important Cruise Committee meeting. Please come and give us your input as we discuss a new "adventure cruises" idea and locations for the 2017 cruising season. We look forward to seeing you there.

Summer Memories

Wow, what a summer – BCYC members enjoyed some fantastic events at our club. Remember how beautiful the club looked for the Father's Day Art and Car Show event? It's always amazing to see the creativity that our members have.

Of course, who could forget how patriotic the club was dressed for the Fourth of July Family Potluck Patio Party. Juver Garcia and Mario Nieto got the club ready, and Linda Ritchie headed the Activities Committee decorating team. Remember dancing to the fun tunes provided by Steve Woods and then finding the perfect spot to view the fireworks?

We had our fill of pizza, popcorn and movie candy, too, at the Patio Movie Nights, featuring "Guardians of the Galaxy," "Finding Nemo" and then finishing off summer with the classic, "Captain Ron." The made-to-order pizzas, hot out of the new ovens, were amazing.

Capping off the summer with Tuscany on the Terrace was a highlight. Revelers stomped grapes, rode in a gondola, and dined on delicious creations by Chef Georges Rapicault and his culinary team, while dancing the night away under the stars to the sounds of Hot Club de Bop.

Now it's time to start thinking about the fall season, including the Cowboy Western Roundup, Oct. 29, Awards Night on Nov. 5, and decorating the club for the holiday season the weekend of Nov. 19-21. Please come join us to plan these activities and more on the second Wednesday of each month at 7:30 p.m.

Summer Fun

Las Commodoras kicked off June with a cooking class luncheon featuring Chef Georges Rapicault. The frog legs were wonderful and a fun topic of discussion!

Del Mar Race Day in July was a great success. More than 30 BCYC members and guests enjoyed roundtrip transportation, reserved seating in the Il Palio Patio section — where we had a fabulous lunch — and betting the ponies! A day at the races is not complete without the “best hat” contest. Diane DiMaria captured first place, with Jane Stratton a close runner-up. Congratulations ladies. Race Day in 2017 will be something you won’t want to miss.

We are looking forward to an afternoon at Sherman Gardens and Library on Sept. 15. Lunch and a wonderful garden tour will be another fun day.

A Great Summer

The BCYC Junior Board is happy to report this BCYC summer has been a great one! Our junior sailors have dominated on the water, delicious burgers have been served every Friday at Burger Bash, and we are all enjoying a happy summer on the bay.

The year has flown by, and I’m amazed this is my last Masthead article as BCYC’s junior commodore. Since becoming a junior director in 2009, I’ve risen through the ranks and have learned so much. I loved working together with such a talented team, and we’ve accomplished great things. My special thanks goes to all of the current junior board members, especially the officers, for being such terrific partners; showing incredible dedication to the club. I’d also like to thank Commodore Sandy Mills and the senior board for their support of our efforts. We will have Poker Night again and hope you are all up for the challenge! I’d also like to thank all of the BCYC members, friends and family who attended Le BCYC Bingo. We could not have done it without you, and invite you to join us for more bingo in 2017. Lastly, I thank my mom, Mrs. Mara Hampton, for her service as the junior board advisor. Your care, consideration and commitment to excellence led us to new heights!

I’m leaving the board in great hands. Sammy Pickell is BCYC’s next junior commodore, and I know she will lead the juniors through another phenomenal year. I hope you’ve all had as great a summer as I have, and know that BCYC will continue to thrive as one of the best yacht clubs. Cheers to the future.

A Really Big Shew

Those of us with some snow on the roof will remember the “Ed Sullivan Show,” an early TV program that featured a variety of performers, from the Beatles to Señor Wences.

Ed would frequently say, “We have a really big shew tonight,” and the fun would begin. Well, not to be outdone, I wanted to tell you that August and September racing will prove to be an equally big shew.

Taco Tuesdays wound up with five evenings of racing/partying in August. Did you experience the club on Taco Tuesdays? Were you able to find an empty table? Make plans to be part of this event in 2017.

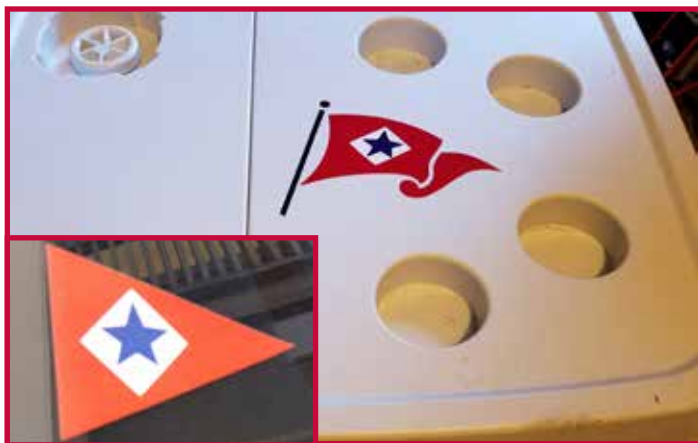

The Angelman Series winds up in September. After three months of multiple windward-leeward races, the “best overall” position is still up for grabs.

September is also Club Championship month. On the 17th and 18th, members will race windward-leeward courses to compete for the “Family Division” and “Championship Division” trophies. As I’ve mentioned before, get certified so that you can practice on the club’s Harbor 20.

September 24 is the Harbor 20 Tune-Up race. You will see more windward-leeward racing (five rapid-fire races...twice around the marks). This is a really great event for spectators. Like Ed’s audience, you will be in for quite a shew.

More racing is in store in future months, including the NOSA 14-Mile Bank Race in October, the AOCYC Fall Finale in November and our own Hot Rum Series in November, December and January!

Visit the club office to purchase your burgee stickers!

Fantasy Sail 2016

Bahia Corinthian Yacht Club will host the Gary Jobson Fantasy Sail Dec. 2-3. For 18 years, BCYC members have been involved in raising funds for Leukemia and Lymphoma research through the Leukemia Cup Regattas, a series of sailing events that combine the joy of boating with the important task of raising money for LLS to help find a cure for blood cancers. Participants have raised more than $58 million to help advance the LLS mission since the regatta series’ inception in 1987. BCYC has been involved since 1998, with the club’s events raising just over $1 million! For the past 11 years, Staff Commodore Ted and Connie O’Connor have had the opportunity to race against sailors from other parts of the United States who have also participated in LLS regattas. The Gary Jobson Fantasy Sail is an annual gathering involving the country’s regatta sailors who raise the most money for LLS. It is hosted by Leukemia Cup Chairman Gary Jobson, the tactician on Ted Turner’s American’s Cup winner, Courageous, in 1976, and an internationally known ESPN and Olympics sailing broadcaster, author and lecturer, and leukemia survivor.

Each year, a different yacht club is chosen by Gary to host the event. The 2015 regatta was held at Royal Bermuda Yacht Club, where it was announced that the next gathering would be at Long Beach Yacht Club. Ted asked Jobson and Marty Siederer, from the national LLS office, to reconsider. After presenting strong reasons for having the event in Newport Beach, it was determined that BCYC would be the 2016 Fantasy Sail host.

With outstanding help from Sail Fleet Captain Paul DeCapua and BCYC LLS regatta chair, Nancy Levy, BCYC is putting together an exciting event for the expected 150 participants from yacht clubs around the United States.

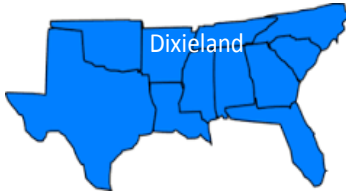

“All of our Fantasy Sail qualifiers are looking forward to a great weekend of sailing, but most importantly, to hearing updates on the progress made in fighting blood cancers,” said Jobson. “The sailing community has provided amazing support for LLS and I am living proof of the progress that has been made with fighting these diseases. However, so much more needs to be done to offer help and hope to the patients and their families on the front lines of the cancer battle.”

Please contact Staff Commodore Ted O’Connor if you would like to help BCYC welcome these outstanding sailors, leading the way to finding a cure.
